

Birds

The Hamilton area is home to many exciting bird species. You can see and hear these species especially during April and May (spring migration) and August and September (fall migration). Grab a pair of binoculars and see what's in your backyard or out your window!

Blue Jay
Blue with white crest and underparts

Date spotted:

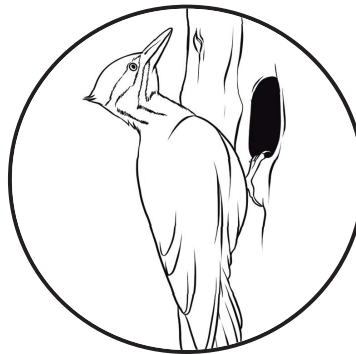

Great Horned Owl
Large ear tufts, reddish brown face

Date spotted:

Northern Cardinal
Red, with black face mask and distinctive crest on head

Date spotted:

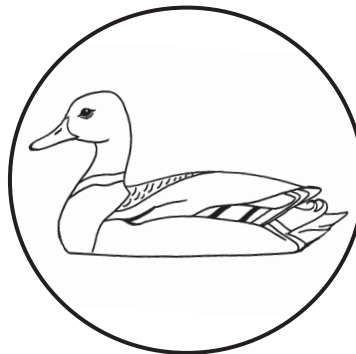

Pileated Woodpecker
Black with white stripes on face and neck with bright red crest

Date spotted:

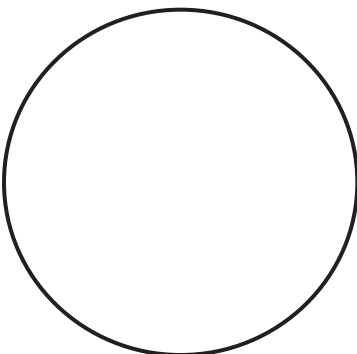

Great Blue Heron
Blue grey in colour with large black strip above eye

Date spotted:

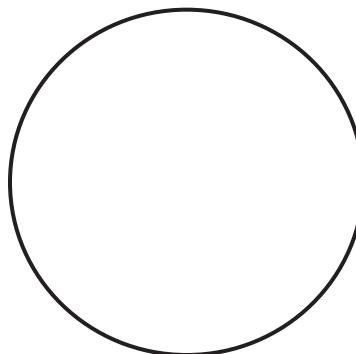

Mallard
Males have a green head with a bright yellow bill

Date spotted:

I also saw...

Date spotted:

I also saw...

Date spotted:
