

Highlights of Jeffy the Jefferson Salamander:

- Why is Jeffy a Species at Risk?
- Where can you find Jeffy?
- How can you help him?

I am a small, brown salamander with blue spots on my back. My trunk and tail have vertical grooves. I live in the woods along swamps and streams and can often be found living under leaf mold!

Activity: Connect the dots and colour Jeffy!

List other species at risk in the Hamilton Area:
