

NATURE
at HOME

How does the Turkey Vulture soar?

Turkey Vultures take advantage of updrafts produced when the wind blows over hills and mountain ridges, or make use of rising columns of warm air called "thermals." Here in Hamilton, vultures can be seen on the Niagara Escarpment taking advantage of the warm air.